youths who spend years pursuing the academic studies. Through this combined system of education both the monks and youths can relate to the world better and be responsible and helpful citizen.

For the smooth functioning of our society both the monks and youths have equal responsibilities but if we do not combine this both system of learning then they are not well equipped to deal with the modern social problems.

In order to achieve this great vision we appeal to all likeminded people who care for the welfare of humanity to kindly come forward to help and support us. We together can help create a better world both for ourselves and for our generations to come.

An Appeal

Today the education system is one sided extreme. You are either a monk or nun pursuing the religious studies or a youth pursuing the modern scientific education. Ngari institute greatest effort will be to introduce basic scientific knowledge amongst the young monks and nuns who spend years in a traditional monastic set up pursuing their religious studies. And also to introduce the basic Buddhist principles to the modern

THE NGARI INSTITUTE OF BUDDHIST DIALECTICS (NIBD)

Ngari institute of Buddhist Dialectics is a non-governmental organization based in the Himalayan Kingdom of Ladakh in a small village called Saboo. The campus is spread over 20 oases of learning

Ladakh has a strong influence of Tibetan Buddhism for over centuries. The simple and harmonious life styles of the People show how deeply the rich Buddhist principles of love and compassion are part and parcel of Ladakhis

His Holiness the Dalai Lama is extremely conscious of this role, and visits Ladakh each year.

BACKGROUND

The NBD is an institution based on a strong Tibetan traditional monastic tradition.

Initiated by the Late Geshe Dawa, the Institute was inaugurated in 1995.

Geshe Tsewang Dorje, an Eminent Buddhist scholar and experienced teacher and an able administrator, resumed the leadership, after the unfortunate and sudden death of the founder.

AIM AND OBJECTIVES

The main aim of this organization is to empower and enrich the monks and lay person especially the youth by imparting a combined and balanced learning of both modern scientific knowledge and ancient Buddhist wisdom, thus helping them to be efficient and productive citizens.

CURRENT STATUS

- Currently the NIBD is offering free classes in Buddhist studies in schools, all over Leh, the capital of Ladakh and its remote villages

PROPOSED PROGRAMS

- In course of time, the NIBD will provide higher philosophical studies to both monks and lay people both for the locals as well as foreigners.
- The NIBD also will sponsor programs in Buddhist philosophy for university students who return to Ladakh for summer vacation

PROPOSED PROJECTS

The institute proposes to build the following infrastructure to felicitate its programs.

1. Meditation and prayer hall
2. A library
3. A hostel for both monks and lay students
4. A dining hall and kitchen
5. A few classrooms
